

Eat Mushmelons 10c
EVERY ONE GOOD

Red Bananas 5c

Watermelon—they're great.

Ceyenne Pines

White Cauliflower

Asparagus, 2 lbs. 25c

Summer Squash 8c

Red Tomatoes, lb. 10c

Small Fowl, lb. 20c

Large two-year-old Fowl, lb. 22c

SOMERS

J. H. FRANKLIN, D. S. T., SPECIALIST IN
Chronic and Nervous Diseases.
Room 9, Shannon Bldg. Hours: 10 a.
m. to 4 p. m., Monday, Wednesday and Friday, Tel. 1177-5.

NOTICE

General Statutes of the State of Connecticut, Section 1288, regulating celebration of Fourth of July.

Every person, who between sunset on the 3rd of July and 4 o'clock in the forenoon of the following day, or between 11 o'clock in the evening of July 4th and sunrise of the following day, shall discharge any cannon, pistol, gun, firecracker, torpedo, or any explosive, causing a loud report, or who shall by ringing a bell, blowing a horn, beating a drum, or in any other manner make any disturbing noise or make a bonfire, shall be fined not more than $5.00.

The police are instructed to enforce this law.

TIMOTHY C. MURPHY,
Mayor.

Exempt from Federal Income Tax

$25,000

City of Norwich
4 1/4% Bonds Due 1939 to Net 4.15%

Hornblower & Weeks
69 Pearl Street, Hartford Members New York and Boston
Stock Exchanges

MISS M. C. ADLES
Hair, Scalp and Face Specialist

LOOK AT THE WOMEN!
How can so many women remain ignorant of the fact that a little rub of faded, yellow-gray hair makes them look old and unattractive? Are you one of the careless ones? If so, have Miss Adles improve your appearance!

Buy Monthly Imported Human Hair, 308 MAIN STREET,
next to Chelsea Savings Bank, Tel.
652-4.

TRY THOSE
California Oranges
at RALLION'S

Bathing Suits
in the moderate as well as the better grades.

You need not hesitate to come here for your size for we have it and we show you some excellent ideas in colorings as well as qualities.

Heavy SHAKER KNIT SUITS and SILK and WOOL MIXTURE on hand in all sizes

The Toggery Shop,
291 Main St., Norwich, Ct.

Expert Clock
Repairing

Our Department of Repairs has special facilities for handling the most complicated clocks. If you have a valuable chiming clock, a clock with calendar attachment, or a dainty imported travel clock, a clock that strikes and repeats the hours, you can entrust it with confidence to us.

Our workmen are thoroughly experienced.
Our prices, like our work, will please you.

The Paul-Cadden Co.
Jewelers

Established 1872
Paul-Cadden Building

GRUENYER'S
SPECIALTY IN
WATCHES

There is no advertising medium in this country so effective as the Bulletin.
It is the only one that reaches every class of business people.

One Bulletin

Norwich, Tuesday, June 30, 1914.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Nine swordfish, the first big catch this season were brought into New London on Monday.

Grangers have been holding Flora's night this month, when roses were available for decorations.

At the Second Congregational church the Sunday evening service will be discontinued until Sept. 30th.

The bear which has been glimpsed in Eagleville and Mansfield is now reported from Burnside and Wapping.

Mrs. Henry G. Keeney entertained a large party at her home on the week-end at her Gales Ferry cottage.

Tomorrow, July 1st, the new money order rule goes into effect permitting orders to be cashed at any United States postoffice.

The Lake house at Gardner Lake has been opened and is now ready to entertain automobile parties and transient guests.—adv.

Two streams of water handled by men from the mill were poured on the smoldering paper stock at the paper mill all day Saturday.

An Amherst, Mass., correspondent states that Miss Gladys Glazier has returned from Coventry, Conn., where she has been teaching.

At the Willimantic camp ground a good percentage of the 200 cottages are now occupied and others will be opened for the season this week.

Several new poles for electric lights and telephone wires were set in Treadway avenue on Monday, replacing poles that had become shaky.

An Enfield, Mass., item of local interest is that Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bill Seiden and daughter have arrived at their home in Enfield, from Springfield.

The ladies of the Preston City Congregational church will give a strawberry supper, June 30th. If stormy, next evening.—adv.

Beginning Sunday next, a low mass will be read in St. Patrick's church at 10.30 o'clock, until September. The choir has a vacation during July and August.

The fire at the American Strawboard company mill at Thomaston Friday, was the 24th call for the local department in the twelve months from July to July.

Certificate of increase of capital stock of the Burgess-Wilson Builders' Finish company of New London from $5,000 to $25,000 has been filed with the secretary of state.

The outing of the Cornell Alumni association of Connecticut, will be held at Casey beach, July 11. The closing feature will be a shore dinner. About fifty are expected to attend.

The Connecticut Baptist convention has issued a call to the Baptist churches of the state to aid the Mon-tauk Avenue society of New London, whose church was burned recently.

Orders have been issued by Col.
John D. Barrett regarding night firing at Fort Wright, which began Saturday evening. Residents have been warned to avoid the water areas in that vicinity.

Eight divorces were granted in the superior court at New Haven Saturday, by Judge Reed of Stafford Springs, who had special session at the court for the purpose of hearing the ex-parte cases.

It was stated in the Lenox society news Monday that Mrs. Joseph C.
Hendrix of Brooklyn (Mary Rathbone of Norwich) has leased the Blis-hop villa for the autumn and will arrive in September.

The current issue of The Churchman mentions that Trinity church, Norwich, has been recently presented by Charles B. Chapman, a pair of brass candlesticks, in memory of Theophilus Avery Chapman.

The red ramblers at Mohegan park are beginning to bloom and Superintendent John Duff thinks they will be at their best at the end of the week. There are about 50 ramblers at the gateway and over 100 above the dam.

A force of men in the employ of the Light and Power company, of Groton completed the work of stringing electric wires from Midway to Groton Long Point Saturday. The wires are put up on the G. & S. trolley poles.

The marriage of Richard D. Northrop took place Saturday afternoon at Block Island to Miss Jessie A. Rose, but 12 couples before the death of the groom's mother, Mrs. D. Ward Northrop, of Middletown, who was too ill to attend the wedding.

When the S. A. R. pilgrims who are following the route of Washington's route in 1775 from Philadelphia to Cambridge were in New Haven Saturday, they inspected the paintings of the Lebanon artist, John Trumbull, in the Yale Art school galleries.

Representatives from the bureau of fisheries and a morning meeting of commerce and labor arrived in Connecticut in a special car for the purpose of stocking the trout brooks.
The car had reached New Haven.

Among the corporations to pay dividends next Wednesday will be the New London Northern railroad, which pays nine per cent. per annum, and quite a portion of the $33.75 in its July dividend will come to Connetticut. The stock sells at about 200.

The ceremony of blessing a statue of St. Joseph took place at the morning service Sunday in St. Bridget's church Amherst, Mass. This statue is the gift of John C. Hart of Putnam, Conn., former of Amherst, in memory of his wife, Mrs. Helen M. Hart, who recently died.

The marriage of Mrs. Anna Montgomery Buddington of Ledyard and Ray Colver of Center Groton took place Thursday evening at 7 o'clock at the Baptist parsonage. Old Mystic.
Rev. Herbert Bacon Hutchins presided over the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs.
Colver will reside in Center Groton.

Mrs. Anna Morgan Starr Newton, 33, widow of Maj. Gen. John Newton, U. S. A., famous as an engineer during the Civil war, died Sunday at her home, West Eighth-fifth street, New York.
Mrs. Newton was a direct descendant of John Alden and the daughter of Jonathan Starr of the eastern Connecticut family of Starrs.

A considerable amount of the stock of the H. B. Claffin Co., which failed last week with about $38,000,000 in liabilities, was held in Connecticut.
The largest in the state is Associated Merchants company of Hartford, holding 6,400 shares first preferred, 19,201 shares second preferred, and 1,350 shares common. There are 44 other holders of Claffin stock, including Mrs. Julia H. Chapman, 213 Pequot avenue, New London, five shares common; Philip Z. Hankey, of New London, one share preferred, two shares common and six common.

PERSONALS

Mrs. L. J. Beckwith of Waterford is visiting friends in Norwich.

Miss Elizabeth Paton spent Sunday in Wauregan, the guest of Miss Mary Riley.

Frederick Symington, a student at Williston, is home for the summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward N. Potter have returned after a visit to Meriden and New Haven.

N. A. Ringham, formerly of this city, now of Hartford, was a visitor here on Monday.

Miss Barbara Fox has returned to her home in Norwich after visiting Mrs. Joseph Getchell of Cohasset.

Robert Stevens of Cooper school, New York, has returned to his home in Thomaston for the summer vacation.

Mrs. C. A. Huntington of Ashville, N. C. is the guest of her sister, Mrs.
Charles Courtney Haskell of West
Main street.

Bertram Hall and Albert McNulty were visitors at Ocean Beach Monday evening, making the trip in Mr. Hall's sidcar motorcycle.

Mrs. Joseph Dembo and daughter Josephine of Kittington, Pa., are visiting Mrs. Dembo's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Zeilinger, of Mt. Pleasant street.

County President James Finnegan of Norwich was in New London Sunday to attend the meeting of Division No.
1, A. O. H., at which he made a brief address.

Captain George R. Case of Middletown was in town for a few days last week calling on friends. He spent the winter in the Bermudas and returned in fine condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Peckham of Fair View entertained over Sunday evening at their home, 100 West Beckwith, of Long Island City, and Miss Rhea Dobbrow of Torrington, both formerly of this city.

WEDDINGS

Hassler-Lamoine.
The marriage of Gustave Hassler and Miss Ida Lamoine took place at 8 o'clock on Tuesday morning in St.
Joseph's church. The officiating minister was Rev. R. P. Morrissey. The bride was Miss Ida Lamoine, daughter of Miss Ida Lamoine of Torrington, and the groom was Gustave Hassler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Hassler of Torrington. The ceremony was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. R. P. Morrissey.
The bride wore a gown of white silk with a train and veil. The bride-smen were Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Hassler, Mr. and Mrs. Ida Lamoine, and Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Morrissey. The wedding party consisted of the bride, bride-smen, bridesmaids, groomsmen, flower girls, ring bearer, and ushers.
The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Gustave Hassler, 100 West Beckwith, Long Island City. The wedding dinner was served at 1 o'clock. The music was furnished by the church choir. The ceremony was a simple one, and the wedding party was small.

Barbosa-Faria.
The marriage of Gaudencio Barbosa and Miss Regina F. Faria took place Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride on Clay avenue, the ceremony being performed by Rev. E. S. Worcester. Both bride and groom are natives of the Cape Verde Islands. The groom resides at No. 164 Talmadge street, and the bride at No. 164 Talmadge street. The wedding party consisted of the bride, bride-smen, bridesmaids, groomsmen, flower girls, ring bearer, and ushers. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gaudencio Barbosa, 100 West Beckwith, Long Island City. The wedding dinner was served at 1 o'clock. The music was furnished by the church choir. The ceremony was a simple one, and the wedding party was small.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.
Vaudeville and Photoplays.

Fantomas, the man in black, a four part film with two parts, was the feature moving picture at the Auditorium Monday. It is a startling French detective story full of mystery and exciting incidents. The vaudeville was of a top notch sort and the acts were applauded by the large audience. Alie Johnson, the blackface comedian, who has been making the audience at all stages with his clever balancing and juggling while walking the wire, Kennedy and Burt, in a classic burlesque, and a new showed that they are in the highest class of vaudeville singers. Ashton and Monson, singing, dancing and costume changes were exceptionally good in their Spanish and the ancient's fire dance. The ladies displayed great skill in the modern Broadway combats and at the end of their act received big applause.

Foreclosure Case, Before Common Pleas.

Judge C. B. Walker heard the case of Valentine Serafin against Pasquale Santangelo in the common pleas court in New London on Monday. It is an action for foreclosure of a mortgage on property in Shaw street. The amount involved is $162. The defendant is willing to pay $142, but alleges that the other, Judge Walker took the papers.

Auto Collided on Franklin Square.
An automobile driven by Seymour De Rusa was struck from the side and rear on Monday afternoon Franklin square by a motor car driven by a New York chauffeur and said to belong to the hotel at Gardner Lake. De Rusa was turned back towards the east when the other machine, coming from Franklin street, rounded Young's corner and hit the De Rusa machine, bending the fender over the rear wheel.

Policeman Charles Smith boarded the machine driven by the New York man and had him drive the car up to police headquarters, where he was given a talking to on obeying the traffic laws of the city.

PERSONALITY

Personality is as much a success factor as it is a man's character as it is with men.

Advertising an article or a business gives it a personality.

Or rather it makes its personality known to the public and for all advertising is only a mirror held up to the merchandise.

A trade-mark becomes valuable only as it is made to individ-ualize the thing for which it stands.

People are attracted to advertisements just as they are drawn towards a magnetic man or woman.

Well directed advertising in the daily newspaper is the greatest builder of business confidence ever known.

HAS AN AUTO-MORTEM

But Injured Man is Recovering—Coroner Brown Has Secured Frank Florian's Version of Stabbing in Colchester

—Pasquale Caruso, Who Used the Knife, Has Probably Left This Section.

Pasquale Caruso, who is the Italian who stabbed Frank Florian at Colchester on June 21st, is still at large, although search has been made for him and it is thought here that he has gotten away from this section by this time, although it is believed that he is hiding around Colchester up to within a few days ago.

It is known to countrymen of his in the back, which he received at the hands of Patsy Florian has been working as a stone

cutter at Portland, Me., and had come home to visit his family at Colchester
at the time the assault was made upon him by Patsy. When a fatal wound was inflicted on Florian, the outcome from Florian's wounds seemed likely, Coroner Franklin H. Brown visited him at the hospital and with him a doctor, Dr. J. H. Brown, secured an auto-mortem statement from him.

In his statement to Coroner Brown
Florian explained the cutting by saying that he and Patsy were walking along the street in Colchester when they saw another man at a distance,
and Florian's friend tried to tell him that he was an Italian. The man responded with an oath and pulled out
a knife and started to make an attack on Florian's friend. Florian tried to run, but he was caught by the man, who knifed him away from him, when
the stranger turned on him, stabbed him
twice, and ran away.

Florian claimed that he did not know the name of the man who had
stabbed him and had never seen him before; but his friend knew that the man was probably working for a contractor, and had told him that he was a contractor.

Florian has been working as a stone
cutter at Portland, Me., and had come
home to visit his family at Colchester
at the time the assault was made
upon him by Patsy. When a fatal
wound was inflicted on Florian, the
outcome from Florian's wounds seem-
ed likely, Coroner Franklin H. Brown
visited him at the hospital and with
him a doctor, Dr. J. H. Brown, secured
an auto-mortem statement from him.

In his statement to Coroner Brown
Florian explained the cutting by say-
ing that he and Patsy were walking
along the street in Colchester when
they saw another man at a distance,
and Florian's friend tried to tell him
that he was an Italian. The man responded with an oath and pulled out
a knife and started to make an attack
on Florian's friend. Florian tried to
run, but he was caught by the man,
who knifed him away from him, when
the stranger turned on him, stabbed him
twice, and ran away.

Florian claimed that he did not
know the name of the man who had
stabbed him and had never seen him
before; but his friend knew that the
man was probably working for a contractor,
and had told him that he was a
contractor.

Florian has been working as a stone
cutter at Portland, Me., and had come
home to visit his family at Colchester
at the time the assault was made
upon him by Patsy. When a fatal
wound was inflicted on Florian, the
outcome from Florian's wounds seem-
ed likely, Coroner Franklin H. Brown
visited him at the hospital and with
him a doctor, Dr. J. H. Brown, secured
an auto-mortem statement from him.

In his statement to Coroner Brown
Florian explained the cutting by say-
ing that he and Patsy were walking
along the street in Colchester when
they saw another man at a distance,
and Florian's friend tried to tell him
that he was an Italian. The man responded with an oath and pulled out
a knife and started to make an attack
on Florian's friend. Florian tried to
run, but he was caught by the man,
who knifed him away from him, when
the stranger turned on him, stabbed him
twice, and ran away.

Florian claimed that he did not
know the name of the man who had
stabbed him and had never seen him
before; but his friend knew that the
man was probably working for a contractor,
and had told him that he was a
contractor.

Florian has been working as a stone
cutter at Portland, Me., and had come
home to visit his family at Colchester
at the time the assault was made
upon him by Patsy. When a fatal
wound was inflicted on Florian, the
outcome from Florian's wounds seem-
ed likely, Coroner Franklin H. Brown
visited him at the hospital and with
him a doctor, Dr. J. H. Brown, secured
an auto-mortem statement from him.

In his statement to Coroner Brown
Florian explained the cutting by say-
ing that he and Patsy were walking
along the street in Colchester when
they saw another man at a distance,
and Florian's friend tried to tell him
that he was an Italian. The man responded with an oath and pulled out
a knife and started to make an attack
on Florian's friend. Florian tried to
run, but he was caught by the man,
who knifed him away from him, when
the stranger turned on him, stabbed him
twice, and ran away.

Florian claimed that he did not
know the name of the man who had
stabbed him and had never seen him
before; but his friend knew that the
man was probably working for a contractor,
and had told him that he was a
contractor.

Florian has been working as a stone
cutter at Portland, Me., and had come
home to visit his family at Colchester
at the time the assault was made
upon him by Patsy. When a fatal
wound was inflicted on Florian, the
outcome from Florian's wounds seem-
ed likely, Coroner Franklin H. Brown
visited him at the hospital and with
him a doctor, Dr. J. H. Brown, secured
an auto-mortem statement from him.

In his statement to Coroner Brown
Florian explained the cutting by say-
ing that he and Patsy were walking
along the street in Colchester when
they saw another man at a distance,
and Florian's friend tried to tell him
that he was an Italian. The man responded with an oath and pulled out
a knife and started to make an attack
on Florian's friend. Florian tried to
run, but he was caught by the man,
who knifed him away from him, when
the stranger turned on him, stabbed him
twice, and ran away.

Florian claimed that he did not
know the name of the man who had
stabbed him and had never seen him
before; but his friend knew that the
man was probably working for a contractor,
and had told him that he was a
contractor.

Florian has been working as a stone
cutter at Portland, Me., and had come
home to visit his family at Colchester
at the time the assault was made
upon him by Patsy. When a fatal
wound was inflicted on Florian, the
outcome from Florian's wounds seem-
ed likely, Coroner Franklin H. Brown
visited him at the hospital and with
him a doctor, Dr. J. H. Brown, secured
an auto-mortem statement from him.

In his statement to Coroner Brown
Florian explained the cutting by say-
ing that he and Patsy were walking
along the street in Colchester when
they saw another man at a distance,
and Florian's friend tried to tell him
that he was an Italian. The man responded with an oath and pulled out
a knife and started to make an attack
on Florian's friend. Florian tried to
run, but he was caught by the man,
who knifed him away from him, when
the stranger turned on him, stabbed him
twice, and ran away.

Florian claimed that he did not
know the name of the man who had
stabbed him and had never seen him
before; but his friend knew that the
man was probably working for a contractor,
and had told him that he was a
contractor.

Florian has been working as a stone
cutter at Portland, Me., and had come
home to visit his family at Colchester
at the time the assault was made
upon him by Patsy. When a fatal
wound was inflicted on Florian, the
outcome from Florian's wounds seem-
ed likely, Coroner Franklin H. Brown
visited him at the hospital and with
him a doctor, Dr. J. H. Brown, secured
an auto-mortem statement from him.

In his statement to Coroner Brown
Florian explained the cutting by say-
ing that he and Patsy were walking
along the street in Colchester when
they saw another man at a distance,
and Florian's friend tried to tell him
that he was an Italian. The man responded with an oath and pulled out
a knife and started to make an attack
on Florian's friend. Florian tried to
run, but he was caught by the man,
who knifed him away from him, when
the stranger turned on him, stabbed him
twice, and ran away.

Florian claimed that he did not
know the name of the man who had
stabbed him and had never seen him
before; but his friend knew that the
man was probably working for a contractor,
and had told him that he was a
contractor.

Florian has been working as a stone
cutter at Portland, Me., and had come
home to visit his family at Colchester
at the time the assault was made
upon him by Patsy. When a fatal
wound was inflicted on Florian, the
outcome from Florian's wounds seem-
ed likely, Coroner Franklin H. Brown
visited him at the hospital and with
him a doctor, Dr. J. H. Brown, secured
an auto-mortem statement from him.

In his statement to Coroner Brown
Florian explained the cutting by say-
ing that he and Patsy were walking
along the street in Colchester when
they saw another man at a distance,
and Florian's friend tried to tell him
that he was an Italian. The man responded with an oath and pulled out
a knife and started to make an attack
on Florian's friend. Florian tried to
run, but he was caught by the man,
who knifed him away from him, when
the stranger turned on him, stabbed him
twice, and ran away.

Florian claimed that he did not
know the name of the man who had
stabbed him and had never seen him
before; but his friend knew that the
man was probably working for a contractor,
and had told him that he was a
contractor.

Florian has been working as a stone
cutter at Portland, Me., and had come
home to visit his family at Colchester
at the time the assault was made
upon him by Patsy. When a fatal
wound was inflicted on Florian, the
outcome from Florian's wounds seem-
ed likely, Coroner Franklin H. Brown
visited him at the hospital and with
him a doctor, Dr. J. H. Brown, secured
an auto-mortem statement from him.

In his statement to Coroner Brown
Florian explained the cutting by say-
ing that he and Patsy were walking
along the street in Colchester when
they saw another man at a distance,
and Florian's friend tried to tell him
that he was an Italian. The man responded with an oath and pulled out
a knife and started to make an attack
on Florian's friend. Florian tried to
run, but he was caught by the man,
who knifed him away from him, when
the stranger turned on him, stabbed him
twice, and ran away.

Florian claimed that he did not
know the name of the man who had
stabbed him and had never seen him
before; but his friend knew that the
man was probably working for a contractor,
and had told him that he was a
contractor.

Florian has been working as a stone
cutter at Portland, Me., and had come
home to visit his family at Colchester
at the time the assault was made
upon him by Patsy. When a fatal
wound was inflicted on Florian, the
outcome from Florian's wounds seem-
ed likely, Coroner Franklin H. Brown
visited him at the hospital and with
him a doctor, Dr. J. H. Brown, secured
an auto-mortem statement from him.

In his statement to Coroner Brown
Florian explained the cutting by say-
ing that he and Patsy were walking
along the street in Colchester when
they saw another man at a distance,
and Florian's friend tried to tell him